"ONE OF THE GREATEST ROCK VOCALISTS" - Blabbermouth

"A charismatic, badass vocalist capable of commanding any stage" (- The Guardian) and "a voice made for arenas" (- Jim Florentine Sirius XM, Vh1's That Metal Show), NYC's MILITIAISMYNAME is the ultimate live hard rock experience, created by Militia Vox. Unapologetically its own genre, MILITIAISMYNAME stirs the elements of hard rock, metal, goth/industrial, prog and psychedelic. Armed with epic originals, reimagined classic anthems and their signature fire show * MILITIAISMYNAME rules the stage - from the underground to rock's biggest festivals.

Known for her 4-octave range, raw presence and serious vocal power, this award-winning, heavy music trailblazer has performed/recorded with: Rob Halford (Judas Priest- RNR Hall of Fame 2022 inductees), Twisted Sister, Living Colour, John Petrucci, Cyndi Lauper, L7, Candlebox, members of Guns N Roses, Bad Wolves, Kittie and more. Militia's duet with heavy metal icon Rob Halford of Judas Priest, "Push Comes to Shove" by Bad Penny, reached #23 on iTunes. She is also frontwoman of the world's only all-female tribute to the metal gods, Judas Priestess- making her the only singer to have a duet with the person they've tributed!

Militia appears in the documentary "They Say I'm Different" about funk-rock legend Betty Davis [Amazon Prime Video.] She is Host from hit TV show "Heavy Metal Makeover" and former Host, VJ and special guest seen on FUSE, MTV2 and VH1. Militia is featured in the new book The Art of Metal by Martin Popoff with forward by the late Lemmy Kilmister (Motorhead.) Militia has had several songs in rotation on Sirius XM, including "Halloween" by Divinity Roxx (Beyonce) ft. Militia Vox and "Friends" by Patriarchs in Black ft. Militia Vox (w/Johnny Kelly from Type O Negative, Quiet Riot and Danzig.) "Friends" was just included in the Top 10 "Best of 2023" on Sirius XM's Liquid Metal.

Fire safety is of utmost importance. We can go fireless for indoor events and low ceilings or or fire show can be augmented! We have insurance + perform test runs with local area Fire Departments for all fire performances.

1 Tina Turner

As the Queen of Rock 'n' Roll, this legendary artist's explosive voice and unparalleled stage presence have captivated audiences for over six decades. Her vocal range, which spans three octaves, is marked by her signature raspy texture and powerful belts. Despite facing domestic abuse and ageism within the industry, she has sold over 200 million records worldwide, solidifying her status as an enduring icon.

2 Betty Davis

This visionary artist pushed boundaries with her provocative lyrics and raw, unapologetic vocals that paved the way for her fusion of funk, soul, and rock music. Her distinctive growling voice was a force to be reckoned with. She defied challenging gender roles in a time when it was taboo for women to do so.

3 Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Heralded as the "Godmother of Rock and Roll," this pioneering musician was a trailblazer for both black women in playing and emotive singing style laid the groundwork for future rock legends like Elvis Presley and Chuck Berry. In the industry, she broke barriers becoming one of the first gospel recording artists to cross over into mainstream success.

4 Poly Styrene

As the frontwoman of punk band X-Ray Spex, this trailblazing singer challenged stereotypes about race and gender in the punk scene with her eclectic fashion sense and fierce vocal delivery. Her distinctive voice, characterized by a piercing vibrato and her ability to switch between melodic and aggressive tones, set her apart from her contemporaries. She bravely fought against misogyny within the punk community while also battling mental health issues.

5 Militia Vox

As a commanding vocalist and charismatic performer, this artist has made her mark on the world of heavy metal, defying expectations as a black woman in a predominantly white male genre. Her powerful voice, with its impressive range and guttural screams, is reminiscent of metal's greatest frontmen. Despite facing discrimination within the industry, she has continued to break barriers and inspire future generations of female rockers.

6 Skin aka Deborah Anne Dwyer

As the lead singer for alternative rock band Skunk Anansie, this powerful vocalist's dynamic stage presence and commanding voice have captivated audiences worldwide since the 1990s. Her unique blend of operatic vocals with punk attitude helped redefine what it meant to be a black female rocker. By challenging racial stereotypes in the rock scene, she has paved the way for future generations of artists.
